VII New Business

a. Red Hat's Club

If Red Hats International does not supply correct membership cards by the end of the year, our Red Hats group will withdraw from International and form a separate organization.

Tibbott School reports 130 children in need. Chairperson Williams discussed inviting other organizations, including the Senior Club, to join in donating toiletry items. The service project will take place on December 9 at 1PM.

The Red Hat Christmas party will be held at the Levy Center on December 16, 2024.

b. Bolingbrook Sr. Club update

Nominations for Board elections are in process and will continue for the next two weeks.

The Christmas Party will be December 10 at Alpine Banquets.

c. Friends of the Levy update

The Bingo fundraiser was a huge success and the Committee thanks all who volunteered and donated.

d. Discussion of 2024-25 Senior Activities

The Frozen trip is sold out.

The Senior Expo was well attended and was successful.

December activities will include Lunch and a Movie.

A lunch to see Dennie Diamond at White Fence Farm is scheduled.

The Levy Christmas party will be held at the Levy Center on December 12 and entertainment will be Paula Williams Osco Drug will be at the Levy on November 12 for RSV, COVID and Flu injections.

Future tours were discussed including Niagara Falls.

There will be more "Mystery" tours offered.

More activities will be planned in conjunction with Jennifer from The Community Nutrition Network/Sr Services Association.
